Rabbi Eli and Zemira Ozarowski

May 19-21, 2006

Shabbat P. Behar-Bechukotai

SHABBAT MORNING

Shemita: The Real Sabbatical

Why would G-d want us to “take a year off”? In a post-Musaf drasha, Rabbi Ozarowski will explore the underlying reasons for the law of shemita and what it has to teach us today.

*Saturday (May 20), tefillot: 9:00 a.m., Torah Academy, 2800 Joppa Ave. S., St. Louis Park
Baby-sitting will be provided.*

SHABBAT AFTERNOON (FOR WOMEN ONLY)

A Glimpse Into the Life of a Yoetzet Halakha

What is a Yoetzet Halakha, and what makes her different from the traditional Mikvah lady? Join us as Mrs. Ozarowski, who trained in the Nishmat Keren Ariel program to achieve certification as a Yoetzet, shares her experiences in this cutting-edge area.

*Saturday (May 20), 5:00 p.m., Rapoport home, 4605 W. 28th St., St. Louis Park
Baby-sitting will be provided.*

SEUDAH SHLISHIT (BETWEEN MINCHA AND MAARIV)

The Significance of Yom Ha'Atzmaut & Yom Yerushalayim

Over Seudah Shlishit, Rabbi Ozarowski explores the deeper theological meaning behind these major political events. G-d is sending us a message, which we must not ignore, downplay, or deny.

Saturday (May 20), mincha: 7:45 p.m., Palchick-Silver home, 2608 Princeton Ave. S., St. Louis Park

SUNDAY MORNING

Artificial Insemination and Halakha

What does halakha (Jewish law) have to tell us about artificial insemination? Join us as Rabbi Ozarowski examines what insight traditional sources yield into contemporary medical problems.

*Sunday (May 21), 9:30 a.m., Slager home, 2913 Natchez Ave. S., St. Louis Park
Baby-sitting will be provided at the Rapoport home, 4605 W. 28th St., St. Louis Park*
