

CONGREGATION DARCHEI NOAM
 in collaboration with the University of Minnesota's Center for Jewish Studies
Presents Scholar-in-Residence

Rabbi Michael Broyde
Professor of Law, Emory University

Rabbi Michael Broyde is Professor of Law at Emory University. Ordained by Yeshiva University, he is a member of the Beth Din of America, the largest Jewish law court in the United States. A prolific and wide-ranging scholar, Broyde has written extensively on law and religion, Jewish law and ethics, and comparative religious law.

ALL EVENTS HELD AT DARCHEI NOAM & THE COMMUNITY IS WELCOME TO ATTEND!

Friday, April 29th	Saturday, April 30th
Mincha & Kabbalat Shabbat: 6:20 pm Shabbat Dinner: 7:30 pm Join us for a delicious Shabbat dinner in a warm and friendly atmosphere. Cost — Adult: $14 Child: $8 (under 9), free (under 3) Family maximum: $52 Reservations — Contact Andrea Hein at 248-496-1613 or hein.andrea.m@gmail.com. Reservations must be placed by Friday, April 22! Lecture & Complimentary Dessert Reception 8:30 pm Are Human Rights Universal? What universal moral obligations do we have? Rabbi Broyde turns to the Jewish tradition for answers.	Tefillot followed by a sumptuous Kiddush 9:00 am Lecture: 11:45 am Innovation and Jewish Law When and how does an ancient religion change? Rabbi Broyde presents fascinating examples from throughout the ages. Mincha 7:15 pm Lecture & Complimentary Light Supper 7:30 pm Brain Death: A Jewish Perspective When is a person “dead”? There is no more ethically contentious, emotional, and sometimes politicized issue in modern medicine. Rabbi Broyde explores what Jewish law has to say.