Nuriel Klinger grew up in Columbus, Ohio, and after graduating from high school, attended the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He graduated from Michigan with a BA in economics. One year after graduating from Michigan, Nuriel moved to New York City to attend Yeshiva University's semikha program. While enrolled in the semikha program, he served as an intern at Congregation Ahavas Achim in Highland Park, NJ and at the Manhattan Mechina l'Gerut. Nuriel is now in his final year of the semikha program. Concurrent to his semikha studies, Nuriel also completed a Masters in Medieval Jewish History from YU's Bernard Revel Graduate School of Jewish Studies. Nuriel and his wife, Aliza, currently live in the Washington Heights neighborhood of Manhattan.
